The Modern
Seven Wonders
Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white-headed pelican pough a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their great arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park
And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and prickled ears.
For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.
The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.
This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Rev. H. H. Jones of New Smyrna and Rev. G. L. Hanson, D. D., pastor of the Congregational church of Jacksonville, were in the city Tuesday, to attend a business meeting of the State Association of the Congregational church held here in the afternoon.

An Anecdote of Renan.
Renan while traveling alighted at Naples. One morning a servant of the hotel came to him and said that as she had heard the preacher at the cathedral make use of his name many times she would be thankful if he would choose for her a number in the lottery about to be drawn. "If you are a saint," said she, "the number is sure to be a good one; if you are a devil, it will be still better." Renan smiled and chose a number, but he never knew if the servant was lucky.

Tangible Asset.
"I believe I'll promote a transportation company."
"Land or water?"
"The latter, I think. For the former I'd need rails and right of way, but to a water proposition I'll have an ocean to start with."—Exchange.

For Future Reference.
"That lawyer is very tricky," said Mr. Curox. "I wouldn't think of meeting him socially."
"Neither would I," answered Mr.
Dustin Stax, "but you might give me his office address."—Washington Star.

A Correction.
"Your hair wants cutting badly, sir," said a barber insinuatingly to a customer.
"No, it doesn't," replied the man in the chair. "It wants cutting nicely.
You cut it badly last time."

Almost Personal.
Celestine—And has Mr. Pryor's church such a small congregation?
Eluda—Yes, indeed. Every time he says "dearly beloved" you feel as if you had received a proposal.

Birthday Party at Saratoga Inn.
A charming entertainment was held at the Saratoga Inn Monday in honor of Master Herman Swits' birthday.
The supper room was beautifully decorated with violets and ferns and each of the guests present received most artistic favors. After the cutting of the birthday cake the guests spent the evening dancing and enjoying the various forms of entertainment supplied. Miss Maguire delightfully supplied the music for the evening.

Among those present were: Misses Vivian and Fanny Horn, Teresa Maguire, Master Harry Horn, Rev. P. E.
Donnelly, Cedar Rapids; Capt. J. F.
Reagles, R. J. Cross and party, New York; Mr. and Mrs. James T. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Maguire, Saratoga; Mr. and Mrs. McQueen, Steamer Rowena; M. Marlette, Mr. and Mrs. Swits, Schenectady; Miss LeMay, Montreal.

An Amateur Conjuror.
During a little pedestrian trip a gentleman came unexpectedly upon a country race course and on one portion of the ground found a thimblebig establishment in full work. Notwithstanding the remonstrance of his companion, the gentleman, who was a bit of a madcap, insisted on watching the game.

"Now, would the gent like to wager a crown he could find the pea?" remarked the expert.
"Yes," was the reply.
The money was on both sides deposited, and the pedestrian, lifting up the thimble, pointed out the required pea and took the stakes.

A second bet, "double or quits," ended, to the surprise of the expert, in the same result.
Then a third wager, "a pound or nothing," steadied the nerves of the loser, and the trick was accomplished with great caution. The gentleman lifted up the thimble and showed the pea, at the same time pocketing the stakes.

"Shelp me!" etc., "I didn't put it there!" exclaimed the bewildered artist.

"No, but I always carry my own pea," rejoined the man who had come out right as he went on his way with the spoils of war.—London Tit-Bits.

In Modern Egypt.
Douglas Stodden's book on Egypt contains some curious anecdotes. For instance: "My doctor was called to see an Egyptian who was in a very low state. 'What is the matter?' he asked.
'I think it is only depression. I have been a fool and lost a law case. I would not backsheesh the other man's lawyer, and he backsheeshed mine.' Later on when another Egyptian told my friend that he had won a law case my friend said, 'I suppose you backsheeshed the other man's lawyer?' The Egyptian gave a beautiful smile and said, 'How did you know?'"

And again: "I was at Luxor when they were recruiting for the army. If a young man was found to be physically fit his relations were plunged in grief. Professional mourners were bired to squat outside the police station where the recruiting took place, yelling and weeping. If, on the other hand, he was rejected as undersized or a weakling or tainted with a loath-some disease, his relations and friends drew to him rejoicing and kissed him and hung on his neck."
